

Reading through John's Gospel in Lent:

The scheduled readings will take you through the whole of John's gospel during Lent. Sundays are not included in Lent, so there is a little room in the schedule to catch up if you fall behind! Consider keeping a journal as you read and making a record of what God teaches you through this journey.

Holy Wednesday, April 16, 2014 6:00 pm – Seder Meal

Alan Gilman, a Jewish Christian will lead us in the traditional Passover Meal, with ceremonies that have been practiced from ancient times. The last night of his earthly life Jesus and his disciples were sharing in a Passover Seder Meal when Jesus introduced the Lord's Supper (aka the Last Supper, Communion, Eucharist).

This will be an excellent evening of fun, food (again) and discovery.

Good Friday, April 18, 2014 9:30am – The Way of the Cross

Every year St Andrew's Church joins with other Christian congregations to remember the trials and crucifixion of the Lord in a procession of Music Scripture and reflection. A time of proclamation and devotion.

Meet at St. Patrick School on Heritage Dr.

St Andrew's Christian Church

A Lenten Calendar 2014

Thank you for joining us at St Andrews. As Good Friday and Easter approach, it's a great time to focus on the meaning of our faith. In the calendar here, you will find a schedule that guides you through the entire Gospel of John during the forty days of Lent. We've also noted some of the opportunities to get together for fellowship, worship and prayer.

We hope to see you again this season, and we pray that you will be more and more aware of God's great love for you, as revealed by Jesus Christ.
